

Citizens Group Formed Here in Opposition to Sales Tax Referendum

"Tax Action for Growth," a citizen group to work for approval of broad base tax reform, including sales tax legislation not tied to a referendum vote, was organized here Thursday morning. The action came at a public breakfast meeting sponsored by the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce and attended by about 40 Twin Falls businessmen. A four-man steering committee was appointed for the group, which also is to be known as TAG. Committee members are Warren Barry, Dr. Harry Brumbach, William Grange and J. J. Mulhoney. Barry was elected chairman.

U.S. Farm Program Continuance Urged

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (AP)—President Johnson told congress today that farm price support programs should be continued and improved. He called for attention to other measures aimed at parity of opportunity for rural Americans. In a special message, Johnson said the price programs, initiated 30 years ago in the administration of Franklin D. Roosevelt have helped create a commercially successful agriculture. And over the past four years, he said, the price support programs have raised and sustained net farm income at an annual level of nearly a billion dollars above 1960.

Policeman Is Struck by Fleeing Car

GOODING, Feb. 4 — Officers reported today they have found no trace of the hit-and-run driver who struck Gooding Police Officer Roy Mays Wednesday night.

He received a broken rib and bruises on his leg and knee. He was treated by a Gooding physician.

Mays, who was checking doors on business establishments, was hit while crossing the intersection of Third Avenue and Idaho Street, about 8:15 p.m.

Mays said a dirty light blue 1960 or 1961 Dodge, traveling west, ran the stop sign at the intersection and struck him.

Mays was unable to see the occupants of the car, but did note that the car had out-of-state license plates.

He said a piece of material was torn from his jacket and still may be on the car. After striking the officer, the car continued in a westerly direction through a Gooding residential district.

"We believe the majority of the people of Idaho want a broad base sales tax without special privilege exemptions. We believe the people want tax reform which attract industry. We believe all citizens of this state should share some responsibility for the services provided by the state. A broad base sales tax will do just that," Kramer said.

Lloyd Walker, who admitted he usually disagrees with Kramer, added that he thought the referendum was not a bluff or dare, but a campaign issue.

He noted that there is a rumor that the governorship will be See T. F. CITIZENS, Pg. 2, Col. 1

Elk Move Protested By Blaine Senator

Movement of deer and elk herds out of the Ketchum area because of deep snow and scarcity of feed has been protested by Blaine county Sen. Mary Brooks in a letter to Fish and Game Director John R. Woodworth. The state fish and game department already has moved about 90 deer out of Warm Springs canyon, near Ketchum, to the southern portions of Twin Falls and Owyhee counties. Tuesday plans to move part of the elk herd from Warm Springs canyon into the desert area.

Charges Are Dropped in Rupert Case

RUPERT, Feb. 4—Charges of criminal negligence against Rex Quansam, 32, Heyburn, were dismissed Wednesday by District Judge Lloyd Webb, who ruled there is "insufficient proof of reckless disregard" in the death of Jan. 8 of an 8-year-old Rupert school child.

The judge said, however, there is evidence of negligence on the part of Quansam, who was driver of a school bus which ran over Yvonne Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Reynolds, Rupert, after the child fell in front of the vehicle.

Quansam was dismissed on a writ of habeas corpus after appearing before Judge Webb Wednesday. He is represented by Dean Klepper, Burley attorney.

Larry Duff, Minidoka county prosecuting attorney, said "For all practical purposes this means the case is dismissed."

There has been brought to my attention in recent days that deer and elk herds in the central part of Blaine county, the county I represent, are being transported out of the general area. I have been further brought to attention that some of these animals are perishing due to starvation.

I have learned that the fish and game department has had a plan in the past of initiating programs toward the end of preventing deer and elk from being killed in a given locale.

Russ Leaves for Viet Nam Visit

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (AP)—President Johnson's special representative, Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, left for Vietnam today to begin a three-day trip to South Vietnam.

Taylor, who is also ambassador to the Philippines, will be accompanied by his wife and two children.

The trip is part of a larger effort to strengthen U.S. relations with South Vietnam and to support the war effort.

Taylor will be in Vietnam for about two weeks, during which time he will meet with government and military leaders.

He will also visit with the people and report on the situation in the country.

Taylor's visit is the first by a U.S. ambassador to South Vietnam since the war began.

Runoff Water Floods Homes At Fairfield

FAIRFIELD, Feb. 4 — Minor damage has resulted to at least four homes in Fairfield the past two days from water which has backed up from ice and snow-clogged culverts in the northeast side of town.

The water, which is running under the snow, despite temperatures of nine degrees above zero this morning, has flowed into the garages, sub-basements and over the roofs of homes of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Planansky, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickerson, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Daniel and Mrs. Estelle Vaughn.

Mrs. Vaughn, who is Camas county recorder, moved in with relatives when the floor furnace in her home was flooded. Water has surrounded the houses of the Plananskys and Dickersons, while the Daniels had four inches of water on their roof.

Wednesday night the first department equipment was called out and one of the clogged drains was opened.

Chunks of ice and frozen snow have clogged the drains, forcing the water which is running off from fields north of town, under the snow, to back up.

This is the first time oldtime residents here recall this section of town having trouble with flood waters. During the December rain, flooding was confined to the west side of town.

Colder temperatures at night slow the flow of water, but by late afternoon it has been running again the past two days.

Any unseasonal warm weather could cause considerably more difficulty, residents pointed out, adding there are 15 inches of snow on the level at Fairfield.

Warren Visits Manila

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4 (AP)—Senator Warren left for Manila today to begin a night for Manila to be guest of honor and principal speaker at the 30th anniversary of the Philippine Constitution.

Warren will be accompanied by his wife and two children.

He will be in Manila for about two weeks, during which time he will meet with government and military leaders.

He will also visit with the people and report on the situation in the country.

Minidoka Senator Hits Referendum Plan as "Chicken"

BOISE, Feb. 4 (UPI)—Senate finance committee Chairman Rodney Hansen labeled as "real chicken" today a proposal to put any sales tax law passed by the legislature to a popular vote. "This is a real chicken way to do it," the Minidoka county Republican said. "I've had my constituents ask me, 'what is the matter with the legislature? Haven't you the ability to evaluate the situation and make a decision about what is best for the state?'"

GERALD R. FORD, representative and recently-elected house minority leader, will speak during annual Lincoln day banquet at 6:30 p.m., Tuesday in American Legion hall.

Ford, who will be introduced by Idaho second district Rep. George Hansen, was a member of the investigating board into the assassination of President Kennedy.

Plans Set for Lincoln Day Event Here

Rep. Gerald R. Ford, recently elected house minority leader and member of the investigating board into the assassination of President Kennedy, will be the speaker during the annual Lincoln day banquet set for Tuesday at American Legion hall.

Congressman Ford, a representative from Michigan, will be introduced by Rep. George Hansen, Idaho's second district.

Ford has been a member of congress since 1949. The banquet will start at 6:30 p.m. and will also be attended by Gov. Robert Smylie and Idaho Sen. Len Jordan.

Two buses will bring members of the state legislature from Boise to hear Congressman Ford, it was reported.

Tuesday's talk will be Ford's first major appearance before the public since his recent defeat of Charles Halleck as house minority leader.

The talk is the only address that he has scheduled for delivery in the western states for the balance of the year.

Congressman Ford has been chairman of the Republican conference of the house of representatives since 1963 and received his first national recognition when he was appointed as one of seven members to investigate the assassination of President Kennedy.

He has been a senior minority member of the committee on appropriations and is on the Republican policy committee. As chairman of the Republican conference he is a member of the joint senate-house Republican leadership.

Ford is the senior Republican member on the subcommittee for appropriations for the department of defense and is a member of the subcommittee for foreign operations.

Congressman Hansen, who was instrumental in Ford's recent election as house minority leader, was instrumental in making the Lincoln day arrangements.

Ford received his law degree from Yale university law school in 1941 and in 1942 he entered the navy where he served for 47 months. He spent two years aboard an aircraft carrier.

He was discharged in 1946 with the rank of lieutenant commander and resumed his law practice in Grand Rapids. In 1948 he received the Grand Rapids Junior Chamber of Commerce Distinguished Service Award.

Ford was selected by the United States Chamber of Commerce as one of America's 10 outstanding men.

Ford holds active membership in the American Legion, VFW and is a 33rd degree Mason. He is a member of the Grand Rapids Episcopal church.

Administrator for 2 Hospitals Named

A new joint administrator for both the Rupert and Burley hospitals was announced Wednesday afternoon after a joint meeting of both hospitals at Cassia Memorial hospital, Burley. Thomas R. Harris, 47, Salt Lake City, will assume the administration of both Cassia Memorial and the Minidoka Memorial hospitals March 1. He replaces James Rosenbaum, present administrator at Burley, and Robert Lawrence, former Minidoka Memorial hospital administrator who was relieved of his duties Nov. 25 after a controversy involving alleged management difficulties.

Rosenbaum said he had no statement and no immediate plans for the future.

Mrs. Betty Peterson, Rupert, superintendent of nurses at the Rupert hospital has been acting administrator since Nov. 25.

Harris' appointment was announced by Victor L. Brown, Salt Lake City, of the presiding bishops of the LDS church, who presides over the church's system of 17 hospitals in Utah, Idaho and Wyoming.

Harris was born April 24, 1917, in Edinburgh, Scotland. He was educated in British secondary schools, attended high school in Salt Lake City, and the College of Sheldahl in England. Installation Rites Slated At Shoshone SHOSHONE, Feb. 4 — New members of the Bishop's committee of Christ church, Shoshone, will be installed during the family service at 9:30 a.m. Sunday.

They were elected at a meeting of the congregation and will serve for three years.

Those to be installed by the pastor of the congregation, the Rev. John T. Clark, are Mrs. Max Miller, Mrs. Claude Chess and Mrs. Arthur White.

Mr. Arthur Coffman is a re-elected member of the Bishop's committee and James A. Campbell, a new member, has been elected.

Member emeritus in recognition for his many years of service in the congregation is R. R. Werry, who is appointed to be the church warden and William H. Hays, who is appointed to be the church clerk.

Other members of the congregation are Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Hays, who continue in their positions as clerk and treasurer, respectively.

Minico Plans Musical for Feb. 19, 20

RUPERT, Feb. 4 — Robert Broadhead, senior at Minico high school, has been cast in the lead for the annual operetta which will be presented at the high school auditorium Feb. 19 and 20.

According to Ned Stocks, choir director, "The Music Man" will be presented in cooperation with the drama, art and music departments at Minico.

Leland Durfee is drama director, Arlo Coles, art director, and Stocks will direct the music.

Other leads for this year's production other than Broadhead who is cast as Harold, will be Nancy Williams, who will play the part of Marion. Supporting roles will be played by Alan Williams, Steven Green, Sharon Black, Barry Robbins and Roscoe Orton.

Brice Fagg, Katie Hollenbeck, Diane Crowell, Christine Moss, and James McCathron.

Other roles include Lynne Hunsaker, Richard Polindexter, Ronald Smith, William Crystal, and Dennis Moon, Steve Armstrong, Jerry Benton, Jay Eilers, John McKinley, Ronald Wilcox, Lisa Smith, Connie Mitchell, Linda Osborn and Aloha Rice.

Accompanists for the operetta include Suzanne Haslam and Judy Graham. The Minico dance band will play the overture. Choreographer for the production will be Floy Crandall.

Rites Honor C. S. Lowder

RUPERT, Feb. 4 — Funeral services for Carl Samuel Lowder were conducted Tuesday at the Rupert LDS Third ward chapel by Counselor O. Kay Peterson.

Lyle Lowder gave the family prayer at the mortuary and William E. Dalby gave the invocation. Mrs. Elsie Wilson was organist for the service. An ensemble, including Bernice Westerman, Marilyn Blacker, Bernice Condie, Irene Hunsaker, Georgia Moncur and Lillus Anderson, sang.

A men's quartet with Desmond Welch, Ned Stocks, Keel Severe and Monte Thompson presented one musical number. Bishop Melvin Moncur gave the obituary and Earl H. Griffin was the speaker. The benediction was given by Bishop Lee Merrill.

Palbearers included Don Burdum, Thor Lund, Edwin Rasmussen, D. M. Day, Harland Davidson, and Earl Hutchins.

Flower arrangements were under the direction of the Rupert third ward Relief society of which Lillus Anderson is president.

Funeral services were held in the Rupert cemetery with Harold Thompson giving the dedicatory prayer.

Contract Board Bill Introduced

BOISE, Feb. 4 — A measure that would license private contractors and create a board to regulate them passed the senate yesterday.

Senator Roden, R-Ada, said this is to protect the people from the itinerant workers and contractors who provide substandard supplies, do bad work and leave the state without paying their bills.

Betting Repealer Still Alive

By RICHARD CHARNOCK

BOISE, Feb. 4 — If you again, there's a proposed constitutional amendment sitting in the state house, it's a betting repealer. A house committee meeting for a legislative session of the Idaho legislature would better look again at track.

Handicappers agree that much is likely to be said and done about the method of the House used to stop the repealer on its race through the legislature.

Angered because of the way the house killed its pari-mutuel repealer without a roll call vote, Jack A. Wood, Jr., D-Boiseville, has vowed to bring a repealer to the senate's starting gate.

His repealer, the Allied Civic, who enjoy answering a roll call vote on an issue like this one, has a track record and like the anti-gambling apparatus for other which at the legislature in 1963 to require stores to close at 11 p.m. with a roll-call vote. That And, if that isn't enough, on Sunday they handled it the way they can gather ammunition to fire at them in the next election campaign.

And, to that end at least, you may be seeing just the start rather than the finish — of the horse race that began over pari-mutuel repeal.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

By ANDREW TULLY
SAIGON, Feb. 4.—In any Buddhist demonstration, the most significant development is the sight of the Vietnamese man-in-the-street rubbing liniment into a monk's legs or giving him a lime to suck.

John—or Nguyen—Citizen is taking no chances. He may not be anti-American or anti-government, but for purely practical reasons he must make a show of being pro-monk. To do a monk a favor is to court spiritual benefits, and in the religious-superstitious atmosphere of Vietnam the people are not about to neglect anybody with an official pipeline to heaven.

This is a fact of Vietnamese life too often dismissed by the experts: the fact that the Vietnamese are a deeply religious people. Whether Buddhist, Catholic or Cao Dai, their piety is authentic. They might disapprove of the demonstrations, but the uneasy feeling persists that a Buddhist monk can do no wrong.

INFILTRATED BY VIET CONG—Unfortunately for the U. S.—and for the war effort—these monks have been infiltrated by communists who have adopted an old reliable gimmick: the "Yankee Go Home" bill. Intelligent sources have established that the new commune line is to persuade the Buddhist leadership—and through that leadership the people—that an "acceptable" government is possible in Saigon until the foreigners have been expelled.

As citizens of other "emerging" countries have discovered, this is a safe line for Main street to adopt. A man cannot be accused of lacking patriotism if he limits his protests to attacks on foreign interference. And when political chaos has reached the point where nobody has any pat solutions, the citizen can salvage his frustration by blowing off steam against the intruders from across the Pacific.

MONK OUT OF CONTROL—That is Buddhism's value to the communists. It is respectable and thus, per se, influential. It is all very well for the sect's top-drawer leaders to reiterate pledges of no more violent demonstrations, but the leadership no longer controls the lower-level monks. Any time these monks, prodded by red agitators working incognito or disguised in the saffron robes of the monastery—want to stir up the fans, they do so without any by your leave from the leadership.

They flaunt verbose banners declaring, "The Americans must assume entirely the responsibility for the Vietnamese government," and, "We call for love, a unity of mind and beloved hearts to rebuild our country." They look on benignly while teen punks hurl rocks and burn American books. They trot around town, gathering their camp-following hordes of ne'er-do-wells, and when the going gets rough they collapse on the cobblestones so the citizenry can minister to their exhaustion.

INCITE TO RIOT—However pure their motives, the Buddhist leaders in fact are inciting to riot when they go on their hunger strikes, even in their spiritual isolation; they should know that nothing brings the violent hoodlums into the street as fast as an exercise in "nonviolent" protest. Every time the monks storm an American installation they are reacting to such tactics.

Meanwhile, the war goes on with the help of the Yankees. The Buddhists would send Rome. The terse communiqués tell the story of these foreigners: "Two more Americans were killed in action today in the province of . . ."

A VICTORY FOR THE WEST
Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall deserves the warmest commendation for the steps his department of the interior is taking to correct a violation of the 1863 Reclamation law that has been going on for three decades. This law, which has been on the statute books since 1902, forbids the use of federal irrigation waters to foster land speculation and land monopoly.

His enemies have ceaselessly tried to breach it, and often they have succeeded. The Salt River valley of Arizona is perhaps the most flagrant of numerous evasions of the acreage-limitation law, for the evasion there has been going on nearly half a century. Imperial, however, is one of the most serious reverses the law has sustained.

This valley, about 110 miles long by 40 miles wide, is shared by Imperial county of California and Mexico's Lower California. It is served by the All-American canal constructed under the Boulder Canyon project act of 1928. In 1933 President Hoover's secretary of the interior, Ray Lyman Wilbur, informally ruled that the acreage limitation law did not apply to contracts executed under that act.

That almost casual frustration of an act of congress has been allowed to stand ever since. No secretary of interior has been willing to tackle it. Now Frank J. Barry, solicitor of the interior department, has handed down an opinion that the Wilbur ruling should be reversed. Secretary Udall has instructed Commissioner of Reclamation Donahy to commence implementing the opinion.

This is a grand day for land conservation, for the family farm, for competition and for the spreading of federally-financed benefits among the greatest number for the greatest good. We hope the Imperial valley will be only the beginning, and that Secretary Udall will proceed to track down the evaders, the speculators and the monopolists wherever they are.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

PLACE FOR WIDE MESH

Now just a minute Mr. Senator
Our Yankee Franklin reports from Washington, D. C., that the war on poverty, much more appropriately called the economic opportunity program, is under way, at least in the east. A total of $8,219,670 has been earmarked for Oregon, including funds for adult education in the three R's, boys' camps at Grants Pass and Tongue Point and other locations, a girls' camp in Portland, and to needy college students' loans for indigent farmers, and a number of other things.

Most of this is probably all to the good. The best part of it is that promising direct benefits including incentive to those people young and old, who have been stuck in the despond of poverty in the midst of affluence and need the tools to dig themselves clear.

But one of the first items listed is disturbing and possibly symptomatic: $34,000 in "technical aid" according to Miss Franklin, will be used to acquaint Oregon communities with waves and means of obtaining federal and state help.

This is probably all too necessary. If the whole $8 million dollar-plus is to be spent before next year, I know of no one in the state who can help himself, who understands all of the ramifications of the war on poverty. It is too much to ask that a town clerk in a small place be able to cope immediately with the paper work involved in qualifying for a boot-strap project.

But it will be a sorry state of affairs if those congressmen and elders belatedly learn their lesson only just in time to read that a major chunk of the "poverty" money has been soaked up in the costs of bureaucracy, which, for the most part, are not understood.

The screen through which OEO funds are filtered down to the benefit of those who really need them should have the widest of meshes.—The Oregonian.

POT SHOTS
REMEMBER WHEN?
Dear Sir:—We lived out of Carey in a settlement called Fish Creek 60 years ago. Our little log schoolhouse at the foot of the mountains was an ideal place for us kids to play in the snow. We would climb to the top of the hills and slide down in anything we could bring from home. Some had scoop shovels, some tin dishes and large pieces of tin.

The only trouble was by the time we reached the bottom we needed to sit in the snow to cool off our lower parts as the pans and things became very hot. We had skis and used them, but I think the pans and shovels were more fun.

Our roads would drift full of snow and my dad and the neighbor men would stick long stakes on each side of the trail so we could see where to drive the horses. If a horse fell off his side of the trail, he would go into snow nearly to his back. Sometimes the men unhitched the horse in order to get him back on the trail. I wouldn't have missed all this for anything.

SO THAT'S WHY!
This is in answer to the man who wants to know why there are so many white houses.

The people who own white houses are either hunters, fishermen or golfers. You see, it works this way: They start to paint the house and this hobby bug bites them. Off they go and this leaves the house half painted.

With a white house, it isn't too noticeable, but can you imagine with any other color, say, pink? You start with pink and two or three months later the painter gets back to the house. By that time you are tired of pink and decide on green, so here you have part pink, part green, part white, etc. A rainbow-colored house! Perish the thought!

I run a small business and have had several bitter experiences. We will just have to have more faith in people.

Take the other day. I ordered three cases of peas. Well, some where in the paperwork or something there was a mistake. I got one case of peas, two of sauerkraut. I wasn't happy about it, but had to pay anyway.

MARQUIS CHILDS WRITES ON WASHINGTON

LONDON, Feb. 4.—When Prime Minister Harold Wilson first learned of the motion of censure of the Tories for the "hasty" decisions of his first 100 days he exclaimed: "Now I can say, as Cromwell said at the Battle of Dunbar, 'Thank Thee, or Lord, that Thou hast delivered mine enemies unto my hand.'"

This may prove too optimistic in light of the determined Conservative attack on certain of the impetuous errors of the first three months and the narrow margin of Wilson's majority in the house of commons. But he is a scrapper and a shrewd politician and those who know him say he is at his best with his back to the wall. With the crisis of the pound surmounted, he still has a long way to go to get the debits and the credits in line on Britain's international books.

Wilson is Cromwellian—a roundhead against the cavaliers, a self-made man with little awe for the lordly establishment that has run this nation for most of this century through the instrument of the Conservative party. He is journeying to Washington for an informal talk with President Johnson next week under the unexpected auspices and his government is put in jeopardy.

This is both a practical move and good politics, domestically speaking. A Gallup poll recently came up with the finding that 56 per cent of all Britons consider the United States their best friend. Australia was second with 13 per cent.

The prime minister and the find gout something of a mystery. It seems to be a metabolic upset, sometimes hereditary and a kind of cousin to arthritis.

It flares up again when uric acid crystals are deposited in a bone joint. You foot, then swells, turns red and feels as if it contained a maddened porcupine trying to get out—with all quills spread.

Gout is a democratic disease. It attacks in cottages and castles, monasteries and mansions. It is also pretty much a manly disease. Only one in 20 victims is a woman.

Part of Wilson's dilemma, and most observers agree, is that no one, whether Tory, Liberal or Labor, wants another election at this time. The public would resent the cost and the bother, with the outcome likely to be the same narrow margin on ways of the other, with a resulting uncertainty of decision. Nor from the available evidence do the Tories have any stomach for the unpopular decisions that must be taken if this nation is to bring exports in line with imports and, therefore, balance the books on international payments.

The surcharge of 15 per cent on imports enraged British partners in the European Free Trade association. That, along with the abrupt increase of 50 million dollars a year in old-age pensions, put the pound at the edge of the precipice. It was saved by Lord Croomer, the extremely able governor of the Bank of England, who happens to be a member of the establishment in the very best standing.

Interest rates went up to seven per cent and, with a squeeze on home loans, labor voters are grumbling. But Wilson is confident that he can see this time of stringency through and that he will be able to bring the rate down too long the down again. He has developed a relationship of mutual respect with Croomer.

That word "hasty" in the censure motion is what ails his fighting mood. "Hasty" he glowers. The Conservatives, he sees, postponed unpleasant decisions for two years in anticipation of an election. This prime minister who speaks with the accents of the commoner levels serious charges at Tory rule of recent years, and if it is true that the best defense is an offense then he should come through this time of trial and testing.

The Doctor Says
BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
As we grow older there is a gradual loss of keenness of eyesight. This has long been accepted as inevitable, but Dr. H. W. Laws, Montreal, decided to do something about it.

He treated a group of 237 aging persons, many of them over 70, with four drugs that are known to dilate the small arteries and capillaries. Another group of persons in the same age group who would not take the drugs were observed as a basis for comparison.

This study was carried on for 13 years. The drugs used were nicotinic acid, nicotinyl alcohol, tolazoline and nylidrin hydrochloride. Although all four were effective in some of the subjects, the last named was the best. The others were dropped.

Among the conditions that showed improvement in these patients were opacity of the cornea, diabetes, changes in the retina and spasm of the retinal vessels.

In 206, or 87 per cent of those treated, there was improvement or, at worst, no further deterioration.

Only two per cent of these subjects had any undesirable side effects. This important study is continuing in the hope that further improvement in these results can be made.

New Speed Record Set By Airliner

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4 (AP)—An American Airlines Electra set a new speed record for propeller-driven planes today by flying from Chicago to Washington in one hour, 11 minutes and 30 seconds.

The prop-jet, carrying a full load of 71 passengers, reached a top speed of 600 miles an hour thanks to a stiff tailwind. An Electra normally cruises about 425 miles per hour. The aircraft, commanded by Capt. Angelo B. Perillo, Alexandria, Va., was at 25,000 feet most of the way.

The previous record between Chicago and Washington National also was held by an American Electra—one hour, 16 minutes and 30 seconds.

Eichmann's Top Aide Is Sentenced

FRANKFURT, Germany, Feb. 4 (AP)—A German court sentenced Adolf Eichmann's top aide, Hermann Krumey, to five years at hard labor for complicity in the murder of at least 300,000 Hungarian Jews.

Krumey, 40, an ex-SS lieutenant colonel and Eichmann's deputy, once offered to trade the Western allies one million Hungarian Jews in return for 40,000 trucks. His offer was rejected.

Rites Honor O. Nielson

GOODING, Feb. 4 (AP)—Funeral services for Oliver Nielson were conducted at 3 p.m. Monday at the Gooding LDS church by Bishop C. Alden Johnson.

Mrs. M. Nielson was organist. Parley J. Bennett gave the family prayer and a quartet of Dora May Wall, Carol Lee Hall, James Cleverley, and Venoy Nielson sang. Opening prayer was by Hyram Christensen.

Bishop Johnson gave the obituary and Keith Brimhall was speaker. Loran Stephenson gave the closing prayer.

Active pallbearers were Ronnie Robertson, Donnie Robertson, Doyle Nielson and Dean Nielson. Honorary pallbearers included Herschel Vandiver, Hiram Lee, Melvin Mohwinkel, John W. Robertson, Mike Bryan and Orville Nielson.

Joshua Thurber dedicated the grave. Last rites were at the Wendell cemetery.

Absentee Voting Clarification

BOISE, Feb. 4 (AP)—Clarification of Idaho law dealing with absentee ballots is the aim of a bill introduced yesterday in the senate.

It specifies that to be counted, an absentee ballot must be received by 6 p.m. on election day. Present law says such ballots must be mailed or delivered at least one day before the election but sets no deadline for their receipt.

After the general election last November a lawsuit developed in an attempt to force counting of two absentee ballots, postmarked the day before the election but received the day after. The supreme court ruled they should not be counted.

News Around Idaho

BOISE, Feb. 4 (AP)—The state highway department announced today additional restrictions on load and weight imposed on motor vehicles to lessen damage to highways during the spring breakup period. Restrictions will be effective Friday, the department said, on these routes: U. S. 95, Latah-Benewah county line to Coeur d'Alene; U. S. 95A, Latah-Benewah county line to U. S. 10; state 8, Harrison junction to Rose Lake junction; state 43, Latah-Shoshone county line to Santa; state 58, Washington state line to U. S. 95; state 60, Washington state line to U. S. 95. The department said restrictions were effective yesterday on state 19 from Wilder to Caldwell.

BOISE, Feb. 4 (AP)—The period beginning next Sunday was designated "Idaho electrical week" in a proclamation signed yesterday by Gov. Robert E. Smylie. The proclamation paid tribute to achievements of the electrical industry and its "men and women of vision and genius." Doren Parr, Pocatello, president of the Snake River Valley Electrical Association, witnessed the signing.

BOISE, Feb. 4 (AP)—One of those attending the Idaho legislative committee hearing on proposed plans for a water resources agency was a visitor from southern California. She identified herself as Mrs. Florence Norlen, San Bernardino, Calif., and said she was visiting her daughter in Boise. "I represent southern California," Mrs. Norlen told legislators. "Southern California is in a desperate situation when it comes to water. And southern California is very grabby, but I still would like you to think kindly of us. We don't want to steal anything from anyone, but the people of Idaho ought to know that we are going to have to get water from somewhere."

BOISE, Feb. 4 (AP)—Driver training courses conducted in Idaho public schools would be open to all persons over 14 under provisions of a bill introduced in the senate yesterday. At present such courses are open only to pupils in the school districts 14 to 18 years of age. The bill, introduced by the senate transportation and defense committee, would make eligible for the course all residents over 14 "whether or not they are enrolled in a public, private or parochial school."

BOISE, Feb. 4 (AP)—Social security numbers can be applied for at any internal revenue office, in addition to social security offices, said yesterday. All taxpayers must have social security numbers for identification purposes. "Idahoans" list them on income tax returns, Wright said. Wright said also that three tax advice books are available from the government to aid in making out returns. The "Farmer's Tax Guide" is available without cost from county agricultural agents or IRS offices. Wright said, and the two others—"Your Federal Income Tax" and "Tax Guide for Small Business"—may be purchased at 50 cents each.

BOISE, Feb. 4 (AP)—Sugar City voters were commended yesterday by Dr. Terrell O. Carver, Idaho administrator of health, for approving a $120,000 bond issue for a new sewage disposal plant. "Your project will make possible further cleanup of Idaho's water supply," Terrell said in a telegram to C. Lamar Barrus, village board chairman. Terrell said the village received a $29,000 federal grant to aid construction of a sewage system. The bond issue was approved Tuesday by 72 per cent of the voters, 450-174.

IDAHO FALLS, Feb. 4 (AP)—The Bonneville county commission has called for a meeting next Monday to discuss ways of preventing recurrence of flood-damage. "The purpose is to come up with a unified plan to help protect against recurrence of flooding, especially for next year," said A. L. Owens, commission chairman. Flooded areas returned to normal yesterday as the first and second grades of Lincoln school returned to classes and mop-up operations continued. Russell Hottel, chairman of flood control district 10, said there was no immediate flood threat but one could develop in case of heavy rains. He said some water was flowing into the creek, alleviating the flood threat.

By The Associated Press
New snow led roads in northern Idaho today but in other sections of the state highways generally were reported bare and dry. State police said there was snow from the tip of the Panhandle south to the Coeur d'Alene area. U. S. 10 was snow-covered all across the state. Lolo pass on U. S. 12 remained closed and U. S. 95 also remained closed between Lewiston and Cratermont, with traffic rerouted by way of Kootenai and Orofino. In the south there were icy spots in the Cascade-McCall area and at Council, on U. S. 95. The Galena summit route of U. S. 93 was reopened to traffic but the pavement was snow covered. There were icy spots on U. S. 26 east into Wyoming and snow floor on U. S. 191 north into Montana and on U. S. 93 at Lost Trail pass.

MOSCOW, Feb. 4 (AP)—A low bid of $39,367 has been entered by Spence Electric company, Moscow, to improve the University of Idaho's power program so it can keep pace with the building program, the university announced yesterday. The heavy electric load resulted from construction in recent years of new dormitories. Others are being built. Other bidders, all higher, were Kehne-Crabtree, Electric Smith and Power City Electric, all Spokane. The bids now will be reviewed by the board of regents.

BOISE, Feb. 4 (AP)—School superintendents told legislators last night the new formula for distribution of state aid to schools cannot be effective unless $6 million dollars is appropriated for education. Many of the more than 100 superintendents at public hearings on the formula said they regretted Gov. Robert E. Smylie did not recommend $7 million dollars for schools as the Idaho Education association had asked. The superintendents were critical of the cut of the classroom cost factor from the formula which had increased state aid to schools with better trained teachers. They said its removal takes away incentive to improve teaching staffs in the schools.

ST. MARIES, Feb. 4 (AP)—Two taverns and a bakery were destroyed by fire here last night. The Benewah county sheriff's office said the fire threatened a bank but firemen were able to contain the blaze before it reached the building. Destroyed by fire was the City club, the Rock club and the City Bakery, all one-story buildings, deputies said. The fire was fought by 11 firemen, three policemen and volunteers and brought under control shortly before midnight. No one was injured. Deputies said a fire had broken out earlier in the day at the Rock club and was believed put out when it suddenly flared again, spreading to the second tavern and bakery. Cause of the blaze was under investigation and no damage estimate was immediately available, authorities said.

Memorial

BOISE, Feb. 4 (AP)—A joint memorial honoring the third reconnaissance squadron, 116th armored cavalry of the Idaho national guard was introduced in the Idaho house yesterday.

Sub Teaching Bill Hits Floor

BOISE, Feb. 4 (AP)—The house education committee put in the hopper yesterday a bill that would permit a teacher drawing retirement pay to teach as a substitute and earn up to $1,200 in any calendar year without having any effect on retirement benefits.

The present law allows only 60 days of substitute teaching.

Three Take $110,000 and Armored Car

EAST LOS ANGELES, Feb. 4 (AP)—Three gunmen stole an armored car yesterday and disappeared with its contents of $110,000 in what police said was the largest cash robbery in Los Angeles county history.

The theft was carried out with precision and coolness in the parking lot of a Whittier boulevard food market, as a crowd of shoppers looked on with morose apathy.

The armored car—a so-called "mobile bank" operated by Armored Transport, Inc.—pulled up to the parking lot with a police truck trailing it.

The driver and two other men leaped from the pickup, produced a rifle and revolvers, and overpowered the two armed guards. One bandit drove off in the armored car with the pickup following.

WOTM Have Mid-Winter Conference

The annual mid-winter conference for the Women of the Moose from Buhl, Jerome and Twin Falls was held at the Twin Falls Moose home.

Mrs. Maxine Crumbillas presided as registration chairman, assisted by Mrs. George McDunn. Each member was presented favors made by Mrs. Claude Sever.

The conference was called to order by Mrs. George Long, conference leader. An address of welcome was given by Mrs. Claude Sever, Twin Falls, followed by a response by Mrs. Frank Bill, Buhl.

The investiture of the red stole ceremony was conducted by colleague, Mrs. Ted Soper. Red stoles were presented to colleague, Mrs. Louis Hoffman by colleague, Mrs. Paul Soper; colleague, Mrs. Paul Carlson, present state deputy grand, by colleague, Mrs. Robert Welch, past state deputy grand, and colleague, Mrs. Wallie Holmgren, by colleague, Mrs. Vern Kreigh, Buhl.

The exemplification of the ritual was the opening and the Mooseheart endowment fund by the Jerome chapter. The building by the Twin Falls chapter, and the enrollment and closing by the Buhl chapter.

An address entitled, "College of recent administration fund," was presented by Mrs. Robert Welch, Mrs. Charles Tippet, Buhl, gave an address entitled "The ritual ceremony."

The Jerome chapter was selected as the hostess chapter for the 1966 mid-winter conference to be held in Jerome.

The by-laws of the chapter were presented to a new member by Mrs. Paul Carlson, state deputy grand.

Refreshments were served on tables decorated with winter scene motifs of miniature snow-covered pine trees, deer, snowmen and skiers, designed by Mrs. Lloyd Kelley.

Mrs. Sever served punch and Mrs. Long served coffee.

Hagerman Miss To Compete for State Honors

HAGERMAN, Feb. 4 - Dianne Greuter, Hagerman, has been named Hagerman high school's 1965 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

She scored highest in a written home-making examination taken by senior girls. She is now eligible for state and national honors.

Test papers of all school Homemakers of Tomorrow in the state are being judged. The highest ranking girl will receive a $1,500 scholarship from General Mills, Inc. The state runner-up will be awarded a $500 education grant. The state winner will enter the nationals.

This contest was initiated by General Mills in 1954 to emphasize the importance of home-making as a career.

Including this year's record enrollment of more than half a million senior girls in more than 14,000 high schools, the total number of participants during the program stands at four million, with scholarships exceeding one million dollars.

Miss Mathews, Lierman Slate March Wedding

BUHL, Feb. 4—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mathews, Buhl, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judy Lee, to Lyle Lierman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lierman, Buhl.

Miss Mathews is a graduate of Buhl high school and attended Idaho State university trade and technology school. She is employed at Erna Dean's Beauty Shop, Buhl. Lierman was graduated from Buhl high school and attended Idaho State university trade and technology school. He is engaged in farming south of Buhl.

A March 20 wedding is set.

Job's Daughters Report Meet

The first regular meeting of this term of Bethel No. 12, International Order of Job's Daughters, was held with Rose Ann Sinclair, honored queen, presiding.

Those not previously installed for the new term were installed at this time. Plans for the spring session were discussed. The girls were encouraged to bring their parents to "Parents night." The by-laws were read by James Catterton, associate guardian.

Refreshments were served.

Movie Shown

MAITA, Feb. 4—Members of the Raft River seminary met at the town showhouse for a record hop and a movie. The movie, "Blue Hawaii," was shown.

General arrangements were made by Larry Ellison and Allen Briggs. Activity counselor, Verne Tracy, greeted guests.

Refreshments were served by Rosemary Stephens, Tressie Montgomery and Linda Teeter. Special guests were Mrs. Ruel Barker and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Cottle and children.

Prayers were given by LaVell Darrington and Allen Briggs.

Gift Presented At Burley Sorority Meet

BURLEY, Feb. 4—Xi Omega chapter members, Beta Sigma Phi, presented Mrs. Earl Killian a gift during their meeting at the home of Mrs. Golden Grice. Mrs. Killian is moving from the area.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. LePace Layton, president. Plans were made for a fund raising project to help pay expenses of members going to the state convention June 11 through 14 at Leaverton. Mrs. Dean Reiman, chairman, will call a committee meeting to work on the project.

Members will be telephoning Monday to remind residents of the Red Cross bloodmobile visit from 8 a.m. Monday at the Burley Gas had.

The social program on Monday and members of Idaho was presented by Mrs. Grice and Idaho representation was given by Mrs. Reiman.

The next meeting will be Feb. 11 with the Alpha Zeta chapter. Mrs. Jack Mason, Xi Omega member and Mrs. Robert Hillard, Alpha Zeta member, will be honored as the Valentine girls.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Grice and Mrs. Mason, co-hostesses.

Area Schools to Play 21 Games Over Week-End

A lull hits Magic Valley basketball this week-end with the conference leaders trying to fatten up on middle and tailend bracket clubs and little in the way of a crucial match. Only the Southside conference has a game that pits a couple of contenders.

Bruins Host Jerome Here Friday Night

Battered and bloodied the Tain Falls Bruins return home after a disastrous January on wheels to meet the equally bowed Jerome Tigers in a game that could prove nothing even if it weren't non-conference.

Tain Falls, which once held a sparkling 6-0 record, has plunged to the depths with an 8-7 mark. Jerome, once rated the South-central Idaho conference's top contender, bowed out of that race with a pair of losses last week and brings an 8-6 mark into Twin Falls.

The only bright spot for Jerome is that the Tigers topped the Bruins in overtime early in January, so can do not worse than a split of the yearly series.

The Bruins are struggling through their worst slump in years. They took 153 shots last week-end, 84 against Nampa, and hit only 30 for less than 20 per cent.

"We've done absolutely nothing this week," says coach Paul O'Connell, who has coached the Bruins since they were founded in 1908.

Feud Over Ownership of Hurler Bends U.S.-Japan Relationship

TOKYO, Jan. 4 (UPI)—What started as an agreement of goodwill has developed into a bitter controversy between the San Francisco Giants and the Nankai Hawks which may even threaten the existing friendly American and Japanese baseball relations. The controversy is over the ownership of a 20-year-old left-handed pitcher, Masanori Murakami, whom the Hawks sent to the Giants last spring. The Giants recalled him from Fresno in the California League and used him in nine games late in the 1961 National league season.

Murakami signed a contract with the Giants last September but returned to Japan in December to see his parents. The Hawks brought pressure on him to remain in Japan. They denied releasing him to the Giants for $10,000. They said Murakami had not been a free agent and had no authority to sign a contract with the Giants.

Murakami subsequently announced he had no further desire to play with the Giants and used a contract Monday with the Hawks. He thereby was guilty of signing a "double contract."

The Giants have claimed they used an option in the agreement with the Hawks to purchase Murakami at $10,000 and that he therefore is Giant property.

The Sports Nippon, a Tokyo daily, reported it had telephoned Ford Frick, commissioner of U.S. baseball, and he was sharply critical of the Hawks' position.

The newspaper quoted Frick as saying that there was no room for any misunderstanding in the case and that he had copies of the agreements showing Murakami to be Giants' property.

Frick was further quoted as predicting serious developments if Murakami failed to play with the Giants this year.

The crux of the situation, according to Frick, was whether the Hawks respected a contract negotiated between them and the Giants.

The newspaper said Frick emphatically said that if Murakami failed to report to the U.S. major leagues in this connection, he said it might lead to cancellation of various agreements in U.S. and Japanese baseball relations.

Frick apparently meant the visit to Japan once every two years of a major league team for exhibition games at the invitation of either the Yomiuri or Mainichi newspapers.

Make Team

M/Sgt. Richard A. Parmeter, Rupert, and Sgt. Rex O'Neill, Fairfield, were selected as members of the U.S. army corps rifle team to compete in the 6th U.S. army matches at San Francisco in early March this year. Sgt. Nicholas N. Henderson, Eden, was selected as an alternate member of the corps team. All of the above men are members of the 6349th army reserve Special marksman unit headquartered in Twin Falls.

Sight Returns For Chiefs' Pass Catcher

TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 4 (AP)—Arbanas was telling of improvements in his left eye which was injured in December. Arbanas underwent surgery on the eye Dec. 13 after a scuffle with two unidentified men in Kansas City.

Arbanas said he was walking along Troost avenue in Kansas City with Al Reynolds, another Chiefs lineman, when the scuffle occurred with the other men. No arrests have been made.

"About two weeks ago, I started to be able to tell daylight and dark out of the left eye," he said. "Then I could see the light from the television, Monday I read for the first time and now I can see the letters even more clearly."

"The eye has responded better than the doctors ever thought it would. About a month ago they thought they might have to take it out."

Arbanas, 26-year-old former Michigan State player, still may need more surgery this spring. His football future will depend on the outcome.

Reports Show Big Game Kill

BOISE, Feb. 4 (UPI)—Incomplete returns of hunter report cards for rare trophy animals show that hunters bagged at least 123 mountain goats, 28 bighorn sheep, 60 moose and 635 antelope during the fall hunting season, the Idaho fish and game department reported today.

To be sure of a near 100 per cent return of cards showing hunter success for these big game species, the department is mailing inquiry letters to everyone who bought 1964 tags for moose, bighorn sheep, antelope and mountain goats.

Beard Uses Putter To Take Meet Lead

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Feb. 4 (AP)—Displaying the day's outstanding artistry on the greens, young Frank Beard shot a six-under-par 66 Wednesday to lead the way through the first round of the $100,000 Bob Hope golf classic. As such gallery idols as Jack Nicklaus

Arnold Palmer and Tony Lema struggled to get par or better, the 25-year-old Louisville pro toured the par 36-36-72 Bermuda Dunes Country club course in a spectacular 31-35-66.

Beard will be remembered as the golfer whose career seemed ended in March of last year when he was stricken with a form of sleeping sickness. He underwent a miraculous and rapid recovery, however, and was back in action in five weeks.

Beard at the finish of the round, which was played under clear blue skies and 80-degree weather, led by one stroke over the lesser known Jerry Steel-smith of Glendale, Calif., and Stan Thirk of Kansas City, Kan.

The tournament is being played over four courses in this resortland, Bermuda Dunes, Indian Wells, La Quinta and Eldorado. Each has par of 36-36-72. Steel-smith played Bermuda in 32-35 and Thirk was at Indian Wells with 34-33.

Palmer had 34-36-70, Nicklaus 36-35-71, and Lema 34-38-72. All played Bermuda, where most of the major players, had their first rounds.

Bobby Nichols, the PGA champion, was forced to withdraw because of an ailing hand, and flew home to Louisville for treatment.

Tommy Jacobs, the 1964 Classic winner, scored 35-35-70 at Bermuda, where he is the home professional when not on tour.

Nicklaus, if he were to play, was plagued with a touch of virus. But he had a well balanced round that included a 40-foot putt for a birdie three on the 10th hole.

Palmer, who shared gallery honors with Nicklaus in their respective tournaments, had a pair of birdies on the first nine and was birdie-bogey on the backside.

Beard's only tournament victory on the PGA circuit was in the Frank Sinatra event in the fall of 1959 at the nearby Canyon Country club, which prompted comment: "I always play well in this kind of weather. I like it hot. I can't shoot with a sweater on."

Beard collected three birds and an eagle on the first nine. The birds were dropped in from 18 to 20 feet and the eagle three came on a chip shot 70 feet away on No. 8.

Indians Sign Colavito for Small Raise

CLEVELAND, Feb. 4 (AP)—Rocky Colavito, a contract hold-out last year with Kansas City, signed a 1963 contract with the Cleveland Indians Wednesday—right on schedule.

Although his salary was not announced, the 31-year-old slugger said he got a raise over his pay last year with the A's—an estimated $48,000.

Last year, Colavito didn't sign until the middle of March. In 1960, the year he was traded to Detroit by Cleveland, Colavito held out until just after the Indians' spring training started.

He signed Wednesday after meeting for an hour and a half with General Manager Clete Stuchlik, who then announced Manager Birdie Tebbets would decide where Colavito would play—outfield, first base or both.

"I'm happy to be back," Colavito said in an interview. "I've been raised in the Cleveland organization. I started with them 14 years ago."

"I'm satisfied with my contract terms. We reached agreement without any trouble after an hour-and-a-half meeting. I wonder why it even took that long."

He said he doesn't care which position he plays but "if I'm going to play first base, I would like to have the whole spring to get ready for that position."

"It's great to have Rocky back," said Paul, "I feel that he will bolster the club in every respect on the field and at the gate."

Colavito's contract was for one year, with a club option for a second year.

Gooding's Adamson Continues to Pace Magic Valley Scorers in Basketball

Gooding's Ron Adamson continues to run away in the Magic Valley basketball scoring race, only Ron Knowles, Dietrich, holding an outside chance of catching the high-scoring senior junior.

According to figures compiled by the Times-News sports department, Adamson has totaled 376 points for a 22.1 overall average, and has three games left. Knowles, a sophomore, has 285 points for a 20.4 average and six games remaining.

Adamson is far ahead in the Southcentral Idaho conference race, holding a 21.5 average. Ron Gearing, Mountain Home, ranks second with 18.6 while Junior Pat Williams, Jerome, is hitting 16.1 for the league and 10.9 for the year.

Other SOI leading scorers, conference average and then seasonal marks, include Albia, Mountain Home, 13.8; Steve Sharp, Piler, 13.2 and 11.0; Ron Silva, Gooding, 12.8 and 10.4; Clark Griffin, Buhl, 11.8 and 11.8; Jim Lewis, Buhl, 11.5; Miller, Mountain Home, 11.8; Lloyd Carey, Piler, 11.4 and 11.4.

In the Little Six conference, Lee McGhee, Glenns Ferry, has taken a big lead toward retaining the title he held as a sophomore last year but failed to defend last year due to a season-long injury.

The 6-foot, 4-inch McGhee has hit 18 points even in league play and 177 overall. Lawrence Huettig, Valley, has moved into second with a 15.0 loop mark but has 12.7 seasonal average places him behind Adamson. Knowles, a sophomore, has 285 points for a 20.4 average and six games remaining.

FROM ALL ANGLES

By LARRY HOYEY

On Sept. 18, 1964, this writer was standing on the practice field at the University of Idaho waiting to watch the Vandals go through their last workout before the "big" game with Iowa. Talking with Steve Musseau, then assistant coach for the Vandals. It was a small talk, someone thinking about that Saturday afternoon in Iowa City.

Then the Vandals broke out of the gymnasium and started down the stairs to the field.

"You know, Larry," Musseau said, "The Lord has been very gracious to me. I can never watch a football team coming out on the field, even the practice field, without feeling a thrill."

And that's the type of man Idaho now has at its football helm.

Musseau isn't the suave, handsome, brilliant conversationalist in the natty Ivy League suit. He is much more.

He is a hard working and honest man.

There is no pretense to him. Everything he says he fully believes. He is the type of man who, as corny as it has come to pass in this modern time, fully believes that football can and does provide those intangible aids to maturing that the non-athlete never receives.

It is very unusual for the University of Idaho to name a football coach that doesn't have everyone in the state wondering what kind of guy we've got this time. For once Southern Idaho definitely knows. Coach Musseau has been recruiting in this area for the past three seasons. He knows dozens of Magic Valley Vandal boosters by their first names and as many more high school athletes.

Although he never tried, by intent or innuendo, to upstage Doc Andros, who was then his boss, in his own quiet, Louisiana way, Musseau came as well, or better known here in Southern Idaho because of his recruiting chores.

Over the years Idaho has had many types of individuals at the football helm. All-Americans, con men, etc. Andros was possibly the first who came here with that old "homespun" and relaxed air. He hit it big in that respect. Musseau is very similar to Doc.

He goes very deep in his feeling for football. With him college football seems closer to being a religion than a business.

He has an abiding faith in Idaho athletes, only in December selling us Idaho high schools play very fine football. The Southern Idaho conference champion could play in any high school conference in the country. They wouldn't win every year but not too many schools would ever push them around.

He firmly believes that Idaho's key to continued football success is a large nucleus of Idaho boys. "We have to have the state pride first and foremost. The rest of the club can be filled in with non-state boys and the Idaho boys won't let them relax," he said three years ago.

Andros always gave a great deal of credit to his meteoric success at Idaho to Musseau and Dick Monroe, now gone to Calgary, Canada. Musseau was in charge of recruiting in Southern Idaho and Monroe had the Spokane area which the university definitely feels is part of the state. And it is for sure that Musseau led more Magic Valley athletes north in the past two years than had made a similar trek in the previous five.

The day to look forward to is Oct. 16, 1965. For on that day in Boise, Andros and Musseau lock horns for the first time. And for the first time Magic Valley residents will have a chance to watch this entire bit of coaching musical chairs complete a cycle.

Fish, Game Revenue up By $435,000

BOISE, Feb. 4—Idaho fish and game department revenue was $435,000 higher last year than it was in 1962, according to figures through December 31 released today by Director John R. Woodworth.

Comparisons are made with 1962 rather than a year later because license increases authorized in most categories by the state legislature to underwrite the department's free-point program did not become effective until May 1, 1963.

This means that all licenses and tags sold by the fish and game department through April 30 of that year were at the old rate before the new fees became effective on May 1. Woodworth explained: "This kind of a split sales year does not give an accurate picture of what the increases mean and the comparisons are made against the 1962 base year instead."

He stressed that additional revenue already produced by license increases has made the five-point expansion program to increase hunting and fishing opportunities in the state possible. Important starts have been made to provide more public access areas around the state, to develop new fishing and hunting areas, expand fish hatchery production, to intensify big game management, and to improve conservation enforcement, research, information and public service.

Pettit Isn't Ready for Retirement

NEW YORK, Feb. 4 (AP) — Bob Pettit, professional basketball player, has a full-time bank job waiting when he retires from the game. But he still has a few more points to tack onto the St. Louis Hawks' ledger.

"I'm an assistant vice president of a bank in Baton Rouge right now, but I'm not contemplating retirement," said the 32-year-old forward now in his 11th pro season. "I was out for six weeks earlier this season—longer than any time during my career—but I feel okay at this point."

The 6-foot, 9-inch former All-American from Louisiana State holds the National Basketball Association career scoring record of 20,688 points. He was the first player to go over the 20,000 mark, gaining that distinction early this season.

"I think that Will Chamberlain will be the one to break it, though," Pettit predicted. Chamberlain, of the Philadelphia 76ers, has scored 19,774 points in five seasons plus, and is the 1964-65 pacesetter with 1,671 points.

"It's a much better game now than when I broke into the league," Pettit observed. "It's faster and there's more accent on defense."

"What makes it easier on us, though, is the better travel accommodations. We fly jet and even the trips to the West Coast are pleasant. It was much tougher when the players years ago when we used to travel by train and bus."

Chamberlain tallied 22 points and grabbed 13 rebounds to pace Philadelphia. Greer contributed 23 points.

Chicago's Bobby Hull, the league's leading scorer, failed to score for the sixth straight game but was involved in a third-period battle with New York defenseman Bob Finger that threatened to turn into a full-scale riot.

Wrestling Meet Opens Thursday At Valley Gym

EDEN-HAZELTON, Feb. 4—The class A championship is up for grabs and Valley appears to have the pole position for the B crown as the fourth district wrestling tournament opens with 34 matches at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the Valley high school gymnasium.

The tournament will continue with a 1:30 p.m. session Friday with the champions to be crowned in a third session beginning at 7:30 p.m. Saturday. The champion and runner-up in each weight division will advance to the state tournament in Idaho Falls next week.

Mince is the defending champion in the A division and is the only titlist this area has known since the sport returned some years ago. But this year, both Mince and Twin Falls are nearly comparable. In their last dual meeting, Mince nipped Twin Falls by two points and then had to have a pin in the final clutch to overhaul Burley by one. Twin Falls and Burley drew 20-20.

Much of the suspense will be dissolved Friday afternoon in the semi-finals when those three powers start colliding head-on. Twin Falls and Mince put nine of 12 men on the line at that time while Burley has only six. But the expectation is that the team from here won't be clinched before Saturday night.

On the basis of previous performances, which actually mean little, Mince draws out to a slight edge for the title over Twin Falls and Burley with those two nearly equal for second spot. But one or two reversals in any of about nine weights could throw that system out and the upsets wouldn't have to be of "major" quality.

Valley and Declo are expected to finish one-two, as they did last year, but without the big point margin. The Vikings whipped Declo 127-95 last spring. The class A division score last year went Mince 97, Buhl 87, Twin Falls 75 and Burley 81.
